

DRAFT

EUROPEAN UNION REFERENDUM (CONDUCT) REGULATIONS

The following Schedules set out the proposed content of regulations that will govern the conduct of the European Union referendum in the United Kingdom. The European Union referendum will also take place in Gibraltar and the Parliament and Government of Gibraltar will make rules that will govern the conduct of the referendum there.

The regulations will supplement provisions about the conduct of the referendum that are contained in the European Union Referendum Bill (currently before the House of Commons), in particular Schedule 3 to that Bill.

The regulations will be made under clause 4(1) of the European Union Referendum Bill. Under clause 6 of the Bill, the regulations may not be made unless a draft statutory instrument has been laid before, and approved by, each House of Parliament. A draft instrument for approval by both Houses will be laid before Parliament following enactment of the Bill.

The proposed content of the regulations is based on the rules that govern the conduct of parliamentary elections and the rules that were used for the Parliamentary Voting System referendum in 2011. The rules have been amended to reflect the fact that the European Union referendum will take place in Gibraltar as well as the United Kingdom. The rules have also been updated to reflect recent changes to electoral law, notably changes made by and under the Electoral Registration and Administration Act 2013 and changes in Northern Ireland to provide for the registration of anonymous voters.

Different aspects of the proposed regulations are covered in each of the Schedules:

- Schedule 1 – Rules for the Conduct of the Referendum contains the main conduct rules, referred to as the “referendum rules” in some of the other Schedules. The referendum rules cover such matters as:
  - the timetable for the referendum,
  - the provision and equipment of polling stations,
  - the appointment of polling and counting agents by referendum agents appointed by permitted participants under Schedule 1 to the Bill,
  - voting procedure,
  - the counting of votes,
  - the declaration of results, and
  - the disposal of ballot papers and other referendum documents after the poll.
- Schedule 2 – Absent Voting in the Referendum contains the absent voting rules. Part 1 relates to Great Britain, Part 2 relates to Northern Ireland. The absent voting rules provide for people to vote by post or by proxy in the referendum (as an alternative to voting in person at a polling station). The referendum absent voting rules build on the rules that apply to elections. If a person has previously applied to vote by post or proxy at elections for an indefinite or definite period, the person will be entitled to vote by post or proxy in the referendum. A person who is not listed as voting by post or proxy at elections may apply to vote by post or proxy specifically in the referendum.

- Schedule 3 – Application of the Provisions of the Representation of the People Act 1983 applies, with modifications, provisions of the Representation of the People Act 1983 to the referendum. The 1983 Act is the principal Act that governs parliamentary elections in the United Kingdom. Schedule 3 applies to the referendum provisions about the alteration of electoral registers in the lead up to an election. It also applies existing electoral offences to the referendum in order to ensure the integrity of the referendum process. In general, the application of provisions of the 1983 Act to the referendum will not affect the referendum so far as it is held in Gibraltar. However, some of the provisions are modified to reflect the fact that the referendum is taking place in Gibraltar and one provision enables the Secretary of State to give directions to the Gibraltar registration officer for the purposes of the referendum, in the same way as he may give directions to any other registration officer. The application by Schedule 3 of provisions of the 1983 Act to the referendum is in addition to the provisions of that Act that will apply in any event (because of the fact that eligibility to vote in the referendum follows from eligibility to vote in elections, including parliamentary elections).
- Schedule 4 – Application of Provisions of Other Acts applies, with modifications, provisions of other Acts to the referendum. Those provisions, for example, relate to the use of premises for referendum purposes and restrict, to constables, the power of arrest inside a polling station for the offence of personation.
- Schedule 5 – Application to the Referendum of Existing Provisions of Regulations applies, with modifications, provisions of existing secondary legislation to the referendum. The Schedule is divided into three parts:
  - Part 1 applies provisions of the Representation of the People (England and Wales) Regulations 2001 and of the Representation of the People (Scotland) Regulations 2001. Part 2 applies provisions of the Representation of the People (Northern Ireland) Regulations 2008. The three sets of regulations comprise the principal secondary legislation governing parliamentary elections in the United Kingdom. They prescribe additional detailed rules about absent voting (including applications to vote by post or proxy and the issue of postal ballots) and access to documents after the referendum. The application, by Schedule 5, of provisions of the regulations to the referendum is in addition to provisions of those regulations that would apply in any event.
  - Part 3 applies to the referendum provisions of planning regulations that control the display of advertisements to ensure that advertisements relating to the referendum are governed by the same rules as advertisements relating to a pending parliamentary election.

An Annex contains draft referendum forms, which are referred to in Schedule 1 (the referendum rules) and Schedule 2 (the absent voting rules).

The Schedules use terms that are defined in clause 8 of the European Union Referendum Bill. Schedules 3 and 5 also use terms that are defined in Schedule 1 (the referendum rules) and Schedule 2 (the absent voting rules).

Collectively, the Schedules are referred to as “the European Union Referendum (Conduct) Regulations”.

The Schedules refer to the “European Union Referendum Act 2015”, because the European Union Referendum Bill will be enacted before the regulations are made.

  - (a) the number that may be appointed by each referendum agent is the same, and

  - (a) whose appointments have been duly made and notified, and
  - (b) where the number of agents is restricted, who are within the permitted numbers.
- (11) Any notice required to be given to a counting agent by the counting officer may be delivered at, or sent by post to, the address stated in the notice of appointment.
- (12) A referendum agent may do or assist in doing anything that a polling or counting agent appointed by him or her is authorised to do; and anything required or authorised by these rules to be done in the presence of the polling or counting agents may be done in the presence of a referendum agent instead of his or her polling or counting agents.
- (13) Where by these rules anything is required or authorised to be done in the presence of the polling or counting agents, the non-attendance of any agent or agents at the time and place appointed for the purpose does not invalidate the thing (if the thing is otherwise duly done).

Notification of requirement of secrecy

- 20 (1) The counting officer must make whatever arrangements the officer thinks are appropriate to ensure that –
- (a) every person attending at a polling station (otherwise than for the purpose of voting, or assisting a voter with disabilities to vote, or as a constable on duty there) has been given a copy in writing of the provisions of subsections (1), (3) and (6) of section 66 of the 1983 Act as modified by Schedule 3;
  - (b) every person attending at the counting of the votes (other than any constable on duty at the counting) has been given a copy in writing of the provisions of subsections (2) and (6) of that section as so modified.

Return of postal ballot papers

- 21 (1) Where –
- (a) a postal vote has been returned in respect of a person who is entered in the postal voters list, or
  - (b) a proxy postal vote has been returned in respect of a proxy who is entered in the proxy postal voters list,
- the counting officer must mark the list in the manner prescribed by the relevant postal voting provisions.
- (2) Paragraph (1) does not apply in relation to a vote on a tendered postal ballot paper (see rule 35).
- (3) Rule 42(3) and (5) does not apply for the purpose of determining whether, for the purposes of this rule, a postal vote or a proxy postal vote is returned.

- (3) In England and Wales and Scotland, a postal ballot paper is not to be taken to be duly returned unless –
- (a) it is returned in the manner prescribed by the relevant postal voting provisions and reaches the counting officer or a polling station in the appropriate area before the close of the poll,
  - (b) the postal voting statement, duly signed, is also returned in the manner prescribed by the relevant postal voting provisions and reaches the counting officer or polling station before that time,
  - (c) the postal voting statement also states the date of birth of the elector or proxy (as the case may be), and
  - (d) in a case where an elector’s or proxy’s date of birth and signature are to be verified in accordance with the relevant postal voting provisions, the counting officer verifies the date of birth and signature of the elector or proxy (as the case may be).

In paragraph (a) “the appropriate area” means the voting area containing the address in respect of which the elector is registered.

- (4) A postal ballot paper or postal voting statement that reaches the counting officer or a polling station on or after the close of the poll is treated for the purposes of paragraph (3) as reaching that officer or polling station before the close of the poll if it is delivered by a person who, at the close of the poll, is in the polling station, or in a queue outside the polling station, for the purpose of returning it.
- (5) In Northern Ireland a postal ballot paper is not to be taken to be duly returned unless –
  - (a) it is returned in the proper envelope so as to reach the counting officer before the close of the poll and is accompanied by the declaration of identity duly signed and authenticated, and
  - (b) in the case of an elector, the declaration of identity states the elector’s date of birth and the counting officer is satisfied that the date stated corresponds with the date supplied as the elector’s date of birth in pursuance of section 10(4A)(b), 10A(1A)(b) or 13A(2A)(b) of the 1983 Act.
- (6) In the case of an elector in Northern Ireland, unless section 10(4B), 10A(1B) or 13A(2B) of the 1983 Act applies, the declaration of identity referred to in paragraph (4) is not to be taken to be duly signed unless the counting officer is satisfied that the signature on the declaration corresponds with the signature supplied as the elector’s signature in pursuance of section 10(4A)(a), 10A(1A)(a) or 13A(2A)(a) of that Act.
- (7) The counting officer must not count any tendered ballot papers or tendered postal ballot papers.
- (8) The counting officer, while counting and recording the number of ballot papers and counting the votes, must –
  - (a) keep the ballot papers with their faces upwards, and
  - (b) take all proper precautions for preventing anyone from seeing the numbers or other unique identifying marks printed on the back of the papers.
- (9) The counting officer must –
  - (a) verify each ballot paper account by comparing it with the number of ballot papers recorded by the officer, and the unused and spoilt ballot papers in the officer’s possession and the tendered votes list and, in Northern Ireland, the tendered postal votes list (opening and resealing the packets containing the unused and spoilt ballot papers and the lists);
  - (b) draw up a statement as to the result of the verification.
- (10) Any counting agent present at the verification may copy the statement drawn up under paragraph (9)(b).
- (11) Once the statement is drawn up the counting officer must –
  - (a) in the case of a voting area in a region for which a Regional Counting Officer is appointed, inform the Regional Counting Officer of the contents of the statement;
  - (b) in the case of any other voting area, inform the Chief Counting Officer of the contents of the statement.

- (12) The counting officer must so far as practicable proceed continuously with the counting of votes, allowing only time for refreshment, except that –
  - (a) the officer may, with the agreement of the counting agents, exclude the whole or any part of the period between 7 pm and 9 am on the next day;
  - (b) the officer may exclude a day mentioned in rule 3(1).
- (13) During the time so excluded the counting officer must –
  - (a) place the ballot papers and other documents relating to the referendum under the officer’s own seal and the seals of any of the counting agents who want to affix their seals, and
  - (b) otherwise take proper precautions for the security of the papers and documents.
- (14) For the purposes of paragraph (12)(a) the agreement of a referendum agent is effective as the agreement of his or her counting agents.

Re-count

- 43 (1) A person within paragraph (2) who is present at the completion of the counting (or any re-count) of the votes in a voting area may require the counting officer to have the votes for that area re-counted (or again re-counted), but the counting officer may refuse to do so if in the officer’s opinion the requirement is unreasonable.
- (2) The persons within this paragraph are –
  - (a) referendum agents;
  - (b) counting agents who, in relation to the count (or re-count), are designated under rule 19(2).
- (3) No step is to be taken on the completion of the counting (or any re-count) of the votes until the persons within paragraph (2) present at its completion have been given a reasonable opportunity to exercise the right conferred by this rule.
- (4) A counting officer may not conduct a re-count once a direction has been given under rule 45(3)(b).

Rejected ballot papers

- 44 (1) Any ballot paper –
  - (a) that does not bear the official mark, or
  - (b) on which a vote is given for both answers to the referendum question, or
  - (c) on which anything is written or marked by which the voter can be identified (except the printed number and other unique identifying mark on the back), or
  - (d) which is unmarked or does not indicate the voter’s intention with certainty, is void and not to be counted.
- (2) But a ballot paper on which the vote is marked –
  - (a) elsewhere than in the proper place, or
  - (b) otherwise than by means of a cross, or
  - (c) by more than one mark,

is not to be treated as void for that reason if the voter's intended answer to the referendum question is apparent, and the way the paper is marked does not itself identify the voter and it is not shown that the voter can be identified by it.

- (3) The counting officer must endorse the word “rejected” on any ballot paper which under this rule is not to be counted, and must add to the endorsement the words “rejection objected to” if an objection is made by a counting agent to the officer's decision.
- (4) The counting officer must draw up a statement showing the number of ballot papers rejected under each of the following heads –
  - (a) no official mark;
  - (b) both answers voted for;
  - (c) writing or mark by which voter could be identified;
  - (d) unmarked or void for uncertainty.
- (5) Once the statement is drawn up the counting officer must –
  - (a) in the case of a voting area in a region for which a Regional Counting Officer is appointed, inform the Regional Counting Officer of the contents of the statement;
  - (b) in the case of any other voting area, inform the Chief Counting Officer of the contents of the statement.
- (6) Where two or more forms of ballot paper are used in the referendum, the counting officer must prepare a separate statement under paragraph (4) in relation to each form of ballot paper used.

Direction to conduct re-count

- 45
- (1) On the completion of the counting of the votes (including any re-count under rule 43), and on the completion of any re-count under this rule, the counting officer must draw up a statement showing –
    - (a) the total number of ballot papers counted, and
    - (b) the number of votes cast in favour of each answer to the question asked in the referendum.
  - (2) Once the statement is drawn up the counting officer must –
    - (a) in the case of a voting area in a region for which a Regional Counting Officer is appointed, inform the Regional Counting Officer of the contents of the statement;
    - (b) in the case of any other voting area, inform the Chief Counting Officer of the contents of the statement.
  - (3) The Regional Counting Officer or Chief Counting Officer must then either –
    - (a) direct the counting officer to have the votes re-counted, or
    - (b) direct the counting officer to make the certification under section 128(5) of the 2000 Act.
  - (4) The Regional Counting Officer or Chief Counting Officer may give a direction under paragraph (3)(a) only if the officer thinks that there is reason to doubt the accuracy of the counting of the votes in the counting officer's voting area.
  - (5) A counting officer who is given a direction under paragraph (3)(a) must –
    - (a) begin the re-count as soon as practicable, and

- (b) if the officer does not begin the re-count immediately, notify the counting agents of the time and place at which it will take place.
- (6) A counting officer may not make the certification under section 128(5) of the 2000 Act until directed to do so under paragraph (3)(b).

Decisions on ballot papers

- 46 The decision of the counting officer on any question arising in respect of a ballot paper is final (subject to review in accordance with paragraph 15 of Schedule 3 to the European Union Referendum Act 2015).

Manner of voting in the referendum

- 2 (1) This paragraph applies to determine the manner of voting in England and Wales or Scotland of a person entitled to vote in the referendum.
- (2) The person may vote in person at the polling station allotted to him or her under the referendum rules, unless the person is entitled to vote by post or by proxy in the referendum.

- (3) The person may vote by post if the person is entitled to vote by post in the referendum.
- (4) If the person is entitled to vote by proxy in the referendum, the person may so vote unless, before a ballot paper has been issued for the person to vote by proxy, the person applies at the polling station allotted to him or her under the referendum rules for a ballot paper for the purpose of voting in person, in which case he or she may vote in person there.
- (5) If the person is not entitled to vote by post or by proxy in the referendum, the person may vote in person at any polling station if sub-paragraph (6) applies.
- (6) This sub-paragraph applies if the person cannot reasonably be expected to go in person to the polling station allotted to him or her under the referendum rules by reason of his or her employment on the date of the poll for a purpose connected with the referendum, if that employment is –

  - (a) in person (where the person is granted permission to be absent from the hospital and voting in person does not breach any condition attached to that permission), or
  - (b) by post or by proxy (where the person is entitled to vote by post or, as the case may be, by proxy in the referendum).
