

Written Answer (Department for Transport) - 13 Jun 2016

Lilian Greenwood MP
House of Commons

Lilian Greenwood: To ask the Secretary of State for Transport, what penalties he is able to levy on the Thameslink, Southern and Great Northern franchisee if the terms of that franchise are breached or its performance is judged to be inadequate; and whether any such penalties have been imposed since that franchise commenced. Claire Perry:

The "Enforcement Policy: Rail Franchise Agreements and Closures" sets out what actions can be taken; a copy of this is attached, and a copy will be placed in the libraries of both Houses.
