Dear Home Secretary,

WINDRUSH LESSONS LEARNED REVIEW

I am writing to update you as to progress regarding the review.

2. I refer to my letter of 9 May 2019 where I set out the complexity and scale of the work carried out in the course of the review, and confirmed that additional work would be required in light of your request on 7 March that the Terms of Reference be extended to include consideration of the Right to Rent Scheme. As a result, the completion of the overall review has taken longer than planned at the outset, but I am pleased to be able to confirm that I am now moving ahead with the final checks to ensure that the report is fair and accurate in all respects. The process for these final checks was agreed following a recent meeting with your officials and I expect to be able to submit the final report to you for laying before Parliament by no later than the beginning of September.

3. You will also recall that paragraph 5 c) of the Roles and Responsibilities document which is annexed to my Terms of Reference for the review provides that '(I) will support you in discussing jointly the findings of the review with those affected by Windrush prior to publication'. I therefore look forward to agreeing with you in due course the arrangements that will be put in place to enable this to happen.

4. To note, I intend to share this correspondence with the Home Affairs Select Committee.

Yours sincerely,

Wendy Williams
