Dear Ms Butler

Response to Parliamentary Question

I am writing following your Parliamentary Question [263101] concerning enforcement of the Gender Pay Gap Reporting (GPGR) Regulations.

You asked how many Equality and Human Rights Commission staff are responsible for assessing the accuracy of employers' gender pay gap data.

Responsibility for enforcing the GPGR Regulations including assessing the accuracy of employers' gender pay gap data falls within the EHRC's enforcement team which consists of 7 staff. Allocation of responsibilities within the team is flexible according to need.

Yours sincerely

Rebecca Hilsenrath
Chief Executive
