The Office of the Advocate General (OAG) is the UK government's Scottish legal team. We provide legal advice, drafting and litigation services to the UK government in relation to Scotland. We also support the Advocate General in his role as a Law Officer.

Correspondence Section:

Telephone: 0131 244 0359
Email: enquiries@advocategeneral.gov.uk

HM Advocate General for Scotland

The Rt Hon Lord Keen of Elie QC

The Advocate General for Scotland is one of the Law Officers of the Crown, who advise the government on Scots law.

Responsibilities include:

- Schedule 6 to the Scotland Act requires that the Advocate General be provided with notice of all 'devolution issues' raised before courts or tribunals in Scotland. Devolution issues include challenges to the legislative competence of an Act of the Scottish Parliament and to whether a member of the Scottish government has complied with the EU Convention on Human Rights or EU Community law.
- The Advocate General can choose to intervene, on behalf of the UK government, in proceedings in which devolution issues have been raised if he so decides.
- The Office of the Advocate General considers all Scottish Parliament Bills as they progress, in consultation with interested UK government departments, to assess their legislative competency. Under section 33 of the Scotland Act, the Advocate General has the power to refer Scottish Parliament Bills to the Supreme Court for decisions on their legislative competence.

UK Export Finance (UKEF) is the UK's export credit agency and a government department which is strategically and operationally aligned with the Department for International Trade. UKEF's mission is to ensure no viable UK export fails for lack of finance or insurance from the private sector, while operating at no net cost to the taxpayer. The department helps UK companies win export contracts, fulfill contracts and get paid. It can support exports for any size of company and across all sectors. UKEF works with 70 private credit insurers and lenders to help UK companies access finance and insurance. UKEF exists to complement not compete with the private sector.

HM REVENUE AND CUSTOMS

We are the UK's tax, payments and customs authority, and we have a vital purpose: we collect the money that pays for the UK's public services and help families and individuals with targeted financial support.

We do this by being impartial and increasingly effective and efficient in our administration. We help the honest majority to get their tax right and make it hard for the dishonest minority to cheat the system.

NATIONAL SAVINGS AND INVESTMENTS

NS&I is one of the largest savings organisations in the UK with 25 million customers and more than £167 billion invested.

NS&I is both a government department and an Executive Agency of the Chancellor of the Exchequer. Our origins can be traced back over 150 years to 1861.

When customers invest in NS&I products, they are lending to the Government, which goes towards the public purse. In return, the Government pays interest, or prizes for Premium Bonds.

OFFICE OF RAIL AND ROAD

As an independent regulator, we operate within the framework set by UK and EU legislation and are accountable through Parliament and the courts. We are an independent statutory body, with powers vested by Parliament in our governing board.

Our board is responsible for setting our strategy and overseeing its delivery. Board members are appointed by the Secretary of State for Transport for a fixed term of up to five years. Our team of executive directors is responsible for delivering the board's objectives and business plan, in line with our legal duties.

Our staff work from six offices across Britain, giving us the flexibility and coverage we need to perform our functions efficiently. Many of our people work away from the office, for example by conducting on-site inspections across the rail network.
