Regulation 2 amends section 58 of the Act which allows Ofcom to renew local and national radio multiplex licences on one occasion only. The amendment permits a further renewal for local radio multiplex licences only.  Regulation 3 inserts a new section 58ZA into the Act which sets out the procedure by which, and conditions under which, a further renewal of a local radio multiplex licence may be made.
Communications Act 2002: s1(7)	5 July 2016	Office of Communications (Membership) (Modification) Order 2016	2016/706	This Order increases the maximum membership of the Office of Communications from ten to twelve.

The SI removed the requirement for appeals cases to be decided "on the merits", and instead requires the CAT to apply the same principles as would be applied by a court on an application for judicial review. Sections 192 of the Communications Act 2003 sets out the right of appeal against decisions made by Ofcom, and the Secretary of State, using powers provided by the Communications Act and the Wireless Telegraphy Act 2006.
