I live in Northern Ireland & feel very strongly that Northern Ireland law must be respected.

An estimated 100,000 lives have been saved because of our existing law.

It is Gods will to give life & to take it away; no government has the responsibility nor can assume the responsibility to do either.

Thou shall not kill. Abortion is murder & those who commit it clearly break God’s command.

If government wish to change our laws regarding abortion it is – NOT IN MY NAME.
