I live in Northern Ireland and I am writing to express that I wish the abortion laws in Northern Ireland to remain as they are. Babies are living breathing human beings with hands and feet and have a right to life as those outside their mothers' womb. Abortion undermines the human right to life for the most vulnerable in our society. I would also point out that our elected representatives made it clear in February 2016 that Westminster should not set out to bypass the law of Northern Ireland. I implore you to allow the people and their representatives in Northern Ireland to determine our own laws and direction.
