Please keep in mind that many lives have been saved as a result of the 1967 Abortion Act not applying in NI.
Abortion is not and never can be considered a human right.
The call for abortion reform in NI distorts actual human rights instruments which are founded on the equal rights of all persons to be protected by the law.
Devolution- this a devolved issue which should be decided by politicians in NI, not Westminster.