Written submission from Jo Mitchell (ANI0210)

As a resident of Northern Ireland I would like continuing respect for our pro-life legislation without this being overruled by Westminster. The current law upholds the value of human life whereas abortion is a life-ending law – the intentional killing of an unborn child, who is totally vulnerable, undeniably human and has a right to life.

December 2018