I am writing because I am concerned that Westminster will bypass the will of our elected representatives and seek to force abortion on us as a country. It is also common knowledge today that since the 1967 abortion act came into force almost nine million abortions have been carried out, sadly something is wrong in our nation with figures like this.

In Northern Ireland many do not want this act and have a belief that the human rights of the child in the womb is often being ignored.

December 2018