I was born in Northern Ireland, and have lived there all my life.
It is my firm conviction that human life begins at conception, and that it is to be treasured and protected.
The present legislation in Northern Ireland ensures that the value of human life is upheld and protected throughout pregnancy. I strongly support this position and want the existing law to be preserved.

December 2018