Written submission from Miss Abigail Burgess (ANI0262)

I live in Northern Ireland and do not want the Pro-life laws, which apply in this region, to be watered down or undermined. Whilst the UK may consider almost 9 million abortions since the 1967 Abortion Act came into existence to be reasonable (which is much more than was envisaged prior to the act being introduced), I certainly do not.

To this end, the law of Northern Ireland must be respected and neither abortion campaigners nor Westminster should determine to bypass the will of our elected representatives which was made clear in February 2016.
