It is with great dismay to learn that there are moves to change the law on abortion despite the fact that MLAs have voted against it and the public are against it. Many thousands of people are alive today in NI because the Abortion Act does not apply to NI. I think it’s wrong to try and bring it in through the back door. Abortion undermines the human rights of the unborn child.

December 2018