Written submission from Miss Rachel Wilson (ANI0374)

The current laws for Northern Ireland should not be changed because;

- Life begins at conception and to take life away beyond that point is murder.
- An estimated 100,000 lives have been saved because of the existing law
- Abortion fundamentally undermines human rights-taking away the right to life from the most vulnerable in our society

December 2018