Let Them Live exists to bring the good news of life, hope and redemption in Jesus Christ to our world, as it struggles under the burden of guilt, misery and hopelessness inflicted by abortion.

Abortion is the ending of a life, which in nearly any other circumstance is called murder. It is wrong in the sight of God, who values life, as its creator and who gives every human-being value and dignity. In all but the most rare and difficult circumstances, where a mother's life is at risk (less than 2% of GB abortions in 2016), abortion is wrong. And we will be held to account for this, and every other sin, when we stand before him as judge.

But the God who values human life from its earliest days as a cluster of cells, who values women as co-equal with men, who shows no injustice nor inequality, sent his beloved Son to redeem lives conceived in pain, and to bring true justice and equality. Redemption for 'hard case' pregnancies does not come through abortion. It compounds pain and hurt. It comes through trusting in Jesus as your only hope, and the only one able to redeem and heal. We trust the Committee will pay heed to the evidence submitted by women who have found him to be a source of hope and redemption in hard cases.

Ultimately it does not matter what the UK Supreme Court and the UN deem to be our legal obligations. Jesus Christ presides over the ultimate supreme court, and the judges and officials of the UK Supreme Court and the UN will stand before him and answer for their obligations to him. This Judge, who will judge all by his righteous standard, offers mercy now to those who will submit to him, who will seek refuge in him as Saviour and Lord.

Psalm 2:10–12

- Now therefore, O kings, be wise; be warned, O rulers of the earth.
- Serve the LORD with fear, and rejoice with trembling.
- Kiss the Son, lest he be angry, and you perish in the way, for his wrath is quickly kindled.
- Blessed are all who take refuge in him.
