Written submission from Roy and Ruby Gillespie

Northern Ireland pro-life laws.

We wish to voice our objections to the attempt to have our laws changed here in Northern Ireland against the wishes of the people and our elected representatives.

Not only that but this would be against the word of God. The one we will all stand before and give account of our stewardship.

I beg you not to go down this road.

December 2018