Please bear in mind that lawmakers will one day have to render an account to Almighty God, the Supreme Lawgiver, as to how the laws that they made measured up to and reflected His Divine Law.

Abortion may well be a desire for some, but it is certainly not a right. On the contrary, it is every mother's duty to do all in her power to protect the life of her unborn child. The child, on the other hand, has indeed a fundamental right to life.

Please refer to the important points made on the following webpages:

https://righttolife.org.uk/key-points-on-abortion-law-in-northern-ireland/

December 2018