1) DEVOLUTION
I agree all statements above.
This is a matter for the residents of Northern Ireland to decide and they alone.

2) DISTINCTIVE LAW AND CULTURE
If, as it says that the law in Northern Ireland does make a difference, then they are setting a clear example to the rest of the United Kingdom.

3) HUMAN RIGHTS & EQUALITY
‘women can only be equal when they have an absolute right to abortion in any circumstance for any reason’ is a moral lie.
Children are normally conceived by the union of man and a woman.
Abortion should only be allowed for medical life-threatening conditions or perhaps in the case of violent rape on the merits of each case.

4) PERSONAL STORIES
None I can quote except that there is record of very many women who are grateful to the help of such organisations as CARE who have gently persuaded them to keep their babies.
