1) DEVOLUTION
Everyone has a choice regarding abortion. I really object to people who say they are liberal democrats insisting that I should agree with their opinion. I consider that it is acceptable and a matter of conscience to stand up for the rights of the unborn child as well as the mother. There are many other alternatives to abortion and I feel that there is a lot of unreasonable pressure put onto society by aggressive lobbyists. Northern Ireland has the democratic right to vote for the society its citizens want to live. If you don’t like it’s only an hour by plane to most places in the UK and you gave a wide variety of places to live which cater for all tastes and preferences.
