1) DEVOLUTION
N.Ireland is a special case when it comes to abortion, as clearly demonstrated by the number of people here (64%) who believe that the issue should be decided by our own elected representatives.

2) DISTINCTIVE LAW AND CULTURE
We in N.Ireland stand against discrimination against the disabled - even in utero - and we want to continue to protect these most vulnerable members of our society.

3) HUMAN RIGHTS & EQUALITY
While it may be acknowledged that in a tiny percentage of cases, a woman has the right to end the life of her unborn child, in the vast majority of cases we need to value and uphold the life of the woman and her child equally.

4) PERSONAL STORIES

December 2018