1) DEVOLUTION
It appears ironic that - on a matter that is legally devolved to NI’s own elected representatives - NI is not represented on the committee discussing this issue. Reports indicate that around 2/3 adults in NI believe this matter should be settled by local representatives. Granted, the NI assembly is not functioning, but why are there no NI representatives on this committee?

3) HUMAN RIGHTS & EQUALITY
As you should realise, very few recorded abortions in England and Wales take place on the grounds of the more extreme cases that may be addressed by human rights legislation. Would you advocate for a woman’s right to end the life of an unborn child in any circumstance?
