My Lords,

Following Lords Consideration of Commons Amendments of the Skills and Post-16 Education Bill on Thursday 24 March, I would like to write to you regarding my reference to the funding for the first waves of T Levels.

During my speech at 1118 – 1119 it should have read “We have made £268 million of capital funding available for the first three waves of T-levels.”

I would also like to clarify that we have not set a target for the number of young people undertaking T Levels in future, but we have planned for up to 100,000 places by the end of the Spending Review period.

I hope this letter has been useful and I will place a copy in the House of Lords Library.

Yours sincerely,

BARONESS BARRAN
PARLIAMENTARY UNDERSECRETARY OF STATE
