Correspondence Email Address: correspondence@energysecurity.gov.uk

Our responsibilities:

- Delivering security of energy supply
- Ensuring properly functioning energy markets
- Encouraging greater energy efficiency
- Seizing the opportunities of net zero to lead the world in new green industries

For 2023, our priorities will be:

- Ensure security of energy supply this winter, next winter and in the longer-term – bringing down energy bills and reducing inflation
- Ensure the UK is on track to meet its legally binding Net Zero commitments and support economic growth by significantly speeding up delivery of network infrastructure and domestic energy production
- Improve the energy efficiency of UK homes, businesses and public sector buildings to meet the 15% demand reduction ambition
- Deliver current schemes to support energy consumers with their bills and develop options for long-term reform to improve how the electricity market works for families and businesses
- Seize the economic benefits of Net Zero, including the jobs and growth created through investment in new green industries
- Pass the Energy Bill to support the emerging CCUS and hydrogen sectors; to update the governance of the energy system; and to reduce the time taken to consent offshore wind
